

Automatic Commercial Ice Makers Preliminary Technical Support Document

This page presents the chapters, reports, and appendices from the preliminary technical support document, which provides the analyses and results for the automatic commercial ice makers (ACIM) preliminary analysis.

Initially developed in January 2012, the ACIM preliminary technical support document was reviewed in September 2012. Subsequent revisions were made to chapters 7, 8, and 10; appendices 8B and 10B; and the life-cycle cost and national impact analysis tables in the executive summary.
